DEDICATION

★ ★

It is a source of pride to Marion High School that many of her alumni are now serving in the armed forces of their country, giving their all to safeguard the future of democracy.

To these heroic men and women we gratefully dedicate the 1945 HURRICANE, in the faith that their sacrifices shall not have been in vain.

Class History

It was 'way, 'way back in the fall of 1940 that, with much ambition and curiosity, we entered into a beautiful new building and what were to be the most exciting days of our life. The older students made us seventh graders feel that we were definitely a part of the high school by letting us have a large representation at the Holston District S.C.A. meeting. That year our Glee Club won high honors in the county contest, along with a number of spellers.

1941-42 looked upon us as the "underdogs" or "rats", but we proved our strength and ability at Field Day, under the direction of Mr. Carmack. The State Board of Education saw us coming and made physical education compulsory.

1942-43 was a rather quiet year, although we fought our way through algebra problems, Ancient History questions, and Latin vocabularies.

1943-44 brought us nearer our goal. Two of the most outstanding events of the year were the Hi-Y banquet and the Junior-Senior picnic. Of course we all looked forward to and enjoyed very much the themes written in history!

1944-45 saw us reach our destination. This was a very busy year as it is with all seniors. The most outstanding events were the Hi-Y banquet, the play, "The Scarecrow Creeps," (which, incidentally, broke all records in attendance), the picnic, the prom, and finally graduation.

In the defense program, we have contributed our time, effort and ability by having a number of boys serve as messengers and firefighters; buying war bonds and stamps, and contributing to all the civic and patriotic drives the school has undertaken. Here we want to give honorable mention to the boys from our class now in the armed forces. Four we especially miss are John Pennington, Earl Cregger, Jimmy Vaught, and Rex Jones. Also in connection with the defense program, special pre-induction classes are being taught to the boys expecting to leave soon after graduation.

Although we have the smallest class to be graduated from the new building, the smartest, and the youngest, we have been well represented in such clubs as Torch-Y, Hi-Y, Beta, Science, Personality, Pep, Collecting, Glee, and Home Ec. Many were in the first band organized and entered the contests at Radford and Johnson City, where superior rating was bestowed upon them. We proudly sent one of our number to the S.C.A. meeting in Wytheville as district secretary this year.

In sports we won fame, too. The boys' basketball team journeyed to Roanoke to enter the tournament this year. The girls' drill team, the snake dances, and dances after games helped create enthusiasm. The teams will miss a number of our boys and girls next year. As the time for graduation approaches, we, the senior class of 1945, wish to thank all of our teachers and friends who have been so kind and patient with us all these years, helping us to prepare ourselves for our future life.

Class Will — 1945

We, the esteemed Senior Class of nineteen hundred and forty-five, possessing unusual intellectual qualities and likewise physical standards, do herewith declare the following to be our last will and testament:

ARTICLE ONE

To our school, Marion High, we leave our steadfast devotion.

To the faculty of Marion High School we leave our sincere appreciation of their good intentions, hoping that we will be forgiven for not realizing their fond hopes at an earlier date.

To the oncoming seniors we will all our ambitions and unfinished tasks (if any!)

To the oncoming juniors, sophomores, and freshmen we leave those long awaited seats in the cafeteria.

ARTICLE TWO

Ann Anderson leaves her pull at Emory to Sue Sanders.

Mary Jim Boyd leaves her friendly personality to Ozena Wolfe.

Billy Hubble leaves his permanent wave set to Nelson Woody.

Fay Elledge leaves her calm manner to Henryetta Sprinkle.

Vada Prater leaves her pep to Doris Heath.

Jack Schwartz wills his athletic ability to Harlan Pafford.

Jean Lawrence leaves her efficiency to Dick Perkins.

Darrell Snider wills his ability to concentrate to Fred Whisman.

Betty Tilson leaves her half empty peroxide bottle to Leola Culbert and Carolyn Funk.

George Poulos wills his billiard skill to David Allen.

Edith Culbert leaves her seat in City Drug—but not her man—to Mary Ann Sprinkle.

John Pennington leaves his influential ability to Thomas Eads.

Billy Hubble and Charlotte Starrette leave their romantic example to Mary Lou Blevins and Harold Conner.

Rosamond Calhoun leaves her grades to Don Battalene.

Jane Lamb wills her speaking voice to Bonnie Snider.

Nancy McDonald leaves her sophistication to Betty Blevins.

Joe Rector leaves his grin to Johnny Anderson.

All appendicitis victims leave empty beds at Lee Memorial Hospital to be used by other Marion High students.

John Scott leaves his muscles to Buster Slagle.

James Gullion leaves his after dinner speeches in history class to James Alley.

Mac Sturgill leaves his typing ability to Dorothy Sutter.

Left with only the bare necessities to face our life ahead, we herewith affix our signatures as attorneys for the Senior Class of 1945.

Signed: Mary Margaret Sprinkle
Darrell Snider

The Advisory Council is composed of the S.C.A. officers, club presidents, homeroom representatives, and a faculty sponsor.

The purposes of the Advisory Council are to coordinate the out-of-class activities and to stimulate greater club activity. In this way all groups feel that they have a place in the S.C.A. The council is interested in helping all clubs obtain their objectives. During the emergency, it has placed special emphasis upon activities that contribute to the war effort.

The council has stimulated participation during the year in the following war-time activities: Sale of Bonds and Stamps, Red Cross Drive, National War Relief Drive, Milkweed Pod Collection, and the United Nations Clothing Drive.

The Girls' Hi-Y Club has participated in many school functions and served in various community campaigns.

Some activities of the club have been selling magazine subscriptions, sending Christmas cards and school papers to school alumni overseas, attending community churches as a group, sponsoring a rummage sale, and taking the lead in providing the school with better recreation.

Among its social events were a dance honoring the football team, a Christmas party, and the annual banquet and dance.

Our school paper, The Scarlet Flash, grew out of the students' desire to pep up the school spirit. Its staff has tried to get everyone interested in school activities and to make everyone personally interested in the paper. The founding of The Scarlet Flash has been one of the most important events of the school year, not only as a means of improving school morale but also as a source of pleasure. It goes to press every six weeks and has a circulation of approximately 326.

The Scarlet Hurricane, under the direction of Coach Leon Noel, ended its season with one win, two ties, and five defeats. The team took its only win from its old rival, Saltville. Although they usually ended up on the losing side, they played outstandingly in the last few minutes of each game. The gridiron will miss five of its first string men next year.

WHO'S WHO

IN THE SENIOR CLASS

HIGHLIGHTS FROM

"The Scarecrow Creeps"

SENIOR PLAY OF 1945

The 1945 senior class opus, "The Scarecrow Creeps", was presented to the public on Friday, April 13, and was repeated on Tuesday, April 17. This play, due to Miss Flora Copenhaver's expert direction and much hard work, was fairly boiling over with atmosphere. It was given in three acts, separated by only a moment or two, and used one set, the living room of Gage Manor.

The characters are as follows:

Roderick Gage, an old man of fierce and dominant character, who is the owner of a large estate and untold wealth ---- EDWIN HASTINGS

Kenneth Gage, Roderick's nephew, a promising young doctor ---- GILES WALKER

Perry Gage, also Roderick's nephew, a stort shory writer ---- REED COUNTS

Norma Gage, Roderick's young and beautiful cousin ---- ROSAMOND CALHOUN

Annabelle Gage, Roderick's "fussy, fat and fifty" sister-in-law ---- BETTY TILSON

Amelia Gage, spiritualistic spinster cousin of the owner of Gage Manor ---- ANN ANDERSON

Adam Throgg, Roderick Gage's butler ---- JIMMIE TODD

Maudie Hobbs, corn-fed maid at Gage Manor ---- VADA PRATER

Aunt Zinnia Washington, Roderick's temporary "colored mammy" cook ---- EDITH CULBERT

Trailing Arbutus, Aunt Zinnia's grown boy, and chore boy ---- MACK STURGILL

The Scarecrow, a mysterious figure in tattered rags ---- BERYL McMILLAN

The characters are involved in a plot that is hair-raising from beginning to end. It starts when Roderick Gage informs his assembled relatives, marooned at Gage Manor by flood, that a priceless diamond is hidden somewhere in the old house, and promises to will all his property to the one who finds the jewel.

Ghosts walk, characters disappear into thin air, and comedy alternates with horror before the guilty party is finally discovered. The jewel mystery is explained, and the curtain falls on a reunited family and a happy ending for the romantic leads.

THE SENIOR PLAY

The auditorium was packed to capacity on both nights of the performance, and from the gasps, chuckles, and screams that prevailed, "The Scarecrow Creeps" was judged a huge success.

The entire senior class helped, in one way or another, to put on the play. Scenery was made in the school shop, costumes were arranged, and makeup applied by members of the various committees who kept the play rolling.

Members of the production staff who deserve special credit for the almost professional lighting and sound effects, the scenery, makeup, and other details, are Edward Tomlinson, Wayne Weaver, Joe Rector, John Scott, Billy Hubble, Charlotte Starrette, June Hicks, Nancy McDonald, Fay Elledge, Margie Greer, Carolyn McClure, Mary Jim Boyd, Jane Lamb, and Darrell Snider.
